

LINDSAY AND CUDDY ARE CHARGED WITH MALFEASANCE

Grand Jury Brings Charges Against Two of the Nye County Commis- sioners and Order Charges Prosecuted.

Malfeasance in office is the charge brought by the Nye county grand jury against County Commissioners Sam F. Lindsay and W. T. Cuddy. The charge was expected for rumors have been in evidence for the last week concerning the report of the inquisitorial body. However, it was not expected that the body would report yesterday for it was given out that Tuesday had been the day decided upon.

After the grand jury had presented its report to Judge M. R. Averill along with the indictments filed, Foreman Robert L. Prouty handed District Attorney Cleve H. Baker four charges, two against Lindsay and two against Cuddy, with instructions that the district attorney investigate and prosecute the same. Mr. Baker last evening had the sheriff's office serve copies of the charges against the two persons involved and named August 4 as the date when they should appear before the district court and make answer. This answer it is expected will either be a written denial or a plea of guilty to the charges.

The accusations as set forth by the grand jury are practically the same against each commissioner, and concern the approving of the salaries of Sheriff J. J. Owens and former county treasurer, Robert F. Gilbert, while both were indebted to the county. It will be remembered that when the Nye and Ormsby county bank closed its doors the county treasurer had on deposit a sum of about $66,000, while Sheriff Owens had about $10,000 of the county's funds on deposit. He made arrangements with the commissioners to make monthly payments to clear up the amount lost, and at the time of his disappearance had nearly liquidated this indebtedness. The grand jury charges that on March 5, April 4 and May 2 of this year Lindsay and Cuddy as commissioners, approved and ordered paid as the sheriff's salary, knowing that Owens was indebted to the county. The report also charges that on March 3, and April 6, 1909, Lindsay and Cuddy approved and ordered warrants for $300 as the salary of Treasurer R. F. Gilbert, knowing that he was indebted to the county, by depositing county funds in the Nye and Ormsby county bank. Gilbert's indebtedness is placed at $1,500, while that of Owens is given as $1,000.

TEARS CANVAS FROM WALLS OF PADDED CELL

CHRIS EISLEY TO BE EXAMINED TODAY BY AN INSANITY COMMISSION.

As the result of drinking a quart bottle of brandy and then recklessly running about in the rain Sunday afternoon, Chris Eisley was taken to the county jail that afternoon, and confined in the padded cell. The cell was guaranteed to hold the most violent patient, and was supposed to be one of the wonders in the local bastille. However, Eisley shattered all traditions, and when the jailor made his rounds late Sunday night, there was not enough of the padding left in place to tell the original character of the cell. Eisley, with superhuman strength, had torn the canvas from the walls and at that time was engaged in issuing challenges to the entire world. Particularly he desired an engagement with Jack Johnson, but if the colored scrapper drew the color line he was willing to take on Jeffries.

Eisley first developed symptoms of insanity during the afternoon of Sunday when he was helping move a house. The excitement apparently proved too much and shortly afterwards he was taken into custody by Officer Charles Slavin. After being confined in the county jail he grew violent and Dr. C. J. Richards was summoned to quiet him.

An insanity commission composed of Drs. Richards and E. K. Smith were to have examined Eisley yesterday afternoon before the district court, but at that time the patient had nearly regained his former composure and talked in a rational manner. Consequently the hearing was postponed until 4:30 this afternoon.

Eisley is a carpenter by trade and has resided in Tonopah for a number of years, coming here from the Bishop Creek country.

FALSE ALARM CALLS OUT THE DEPARTMENT

A stove with a poor ventilation filled a house near Main street with smoke last evening and as a consequence an alarm was sent in to the fire department. The Fluorance avenue hose cart company were on the scene inside of a second and discovered the cause of the call, so when the paid department arrived there was no work for them to do. The building was not damaged.

DEXTER CASE WILL COME UP FOR TRIAL TODAY

COURT WILL DETERMINE IF ANNUAL MEETING WILL BE HELD.

The trial of the case of the Manhattan Dexter Mining company will come up before Judge Mark R. Averill today. The case follows the issuance of a restraining order preventing the company from holding their meeting about a month ago. One faction secured the injunction, alleging that the other faction was indulging in a proxy juggling contest. Should the court decide that the meeting can be held, it will be held, according to the statutes, in the presence of the court, with the clerk of the court acting as secretary and the court itself presiding at the meeting. The meeting, however, will not be held until it has been legally advertised.

Quite a number of interested parties have arrived to be present at the hearing today, among them being Herman Zadig, C. O. Burkert, George Martinson, W. C. Lamb, Arthur Rayercraft, W. M. Veith, Percival Nash, B. Putman, while Attorney George S. Green will arrive today.

The local attorneys who will appear in the case are Campbell, Metson and Brown, Judge J. A. Sanders, Bartlett and Thatcher and McIntosh and Cooke.

SECURES CONTRACT.

Messrs. Campbell and Kelly of the Tonopah foundry landed a nice contract this week from the Goldfield Consolidated company in the shape of a large order for the Kutcher battery guides.

The guides are the invention of Mr. Kutcher and will mean the saving of a lot of wear and tear as they are so arranged that the bushings may be turned when one side is worn and when the latter wears out they may be replaced at a "minutes" notice and with little expense; the old style were cumbersome and costly. The firm have also designed a new centrifugal pump for the Trent agitators which has been placed in the Tonopah Extension mill and which has given even greater satisfaction than its designers hoped for.

Smart Tod of New York left on yesterday's train for the eastern city where he will confer with his associates before returning to Nevada.

MANHATTAN BANK WINS THREE CASES BY DEFAULT

SECURES JUDGMENT ON NOTES DUE TOGETHER WITH INTEREST.

The Bank of Manhattan yesterday received judgment in three cases in the fifth judicial district court on notes, the judgments being taken by default. The bank was represented by C. O. Burkert, the Manhattan attorney.

In the case against S. S. Williams judgment was awarded the bank for about $14,000, which includes the principal and interest, also attorneys' fees amounting to $1,000.

Judgment was secured in the case against D. H. Mordecai for about $3,200, which includes both principal and interest, also the sum of $375 as attorneys' fees.

In the matter against the Eureka Manhattan Mining company judgment was secured for about $3,500, representing both principal and interest and attorneys' fees amounting to $375.

Attorney Burkert was present in court for the bank, which sent out notice some time ago that it would cease to do business. It is believed that all the depositors have been paid off in full, as the suspension of operations was voluntary.

GEORGE D. PYNE IS SLOWLY SINKING

"There is no hope. George is slowly sinking" was the message received by Joseph Stenson last night from Mrs. Stenson at Santa Cruz, with reference to the condition of Senator George D. Pyne, who is in a critical condition in a sanitarium in that city. This news has been expected for the last several days when it became known that the prominent Goldfield attorney was not expected to live. Mr. Stenson will leave this morning for the bedside of his brother-in-law.

J. F. Thorn, manager of the Round Mountain Mining company left on yesterday's auto for the hydraulic camp after a two weeks' vacation spent in California.
